

CLAUDIO BASSO PHOTOGRAPHY

www.claudiobasso.com

BOOKING CONDITIONS

- Client is allowed to place an option on a shooting date which is honored up to two weeks prior that date. At that point the Client has to either confirm or cancel the booking. It is Client's responsibility to contact either Claudio or Sheri to fulfill this obligation.
- Bookings are confirmed only when 50% of the estimate is paid and funds have cleared. Final balance is due at the time of booking confirmation. Please note that if balance is not paid in full we will not be able to honor your booking.
- When a booking is confirmed and a shooting date is set, Client has the opportunity to cancel the date and book a different date up to two weeks prior to the scheduled date. After that a cancellation will incur in the forfeiture of the deposit.
- We reserve the right to modify the booking date if a scheduling conflict arises. In this case you will be contacted to reschedule to a date suiting both parties.
- Client is requested to follow the agreed directives for wardrobe, props and anything else necessary for the shoot. We do not assume any responsibility when a client shows up for a session not prepared. At that point, Client has the choice of cancelling the shoot and forfeiting the deposit or sign a release and proceed with the session.
- Claudio Basso maintains in perpetuity the Copyright on all images. A limited usage release is given to the Client to suit the purpose of the session. Further usage or change in use will have to be negotiated and approved in writing.
- Under no condition we will release the original digital negatives which remain unique property of Claudio Basso in perpetuity. If different format is necessary say for publication please contact us.
- Booking time is considered from the time of arrival at the client to the time of leaving. Overtime is billed at $ 350 per hour and will have to be paid before release of the images.

Booking conditions can possibly change at any time without warning. You should be checking this document prior to your booking confirmation